Have you ever heard of Easter Eggs hidden in movies? An Easter Egg is usually a character that's not supposed to be there and is hard to find. Some examples are ET's family who appear in a council meeting in Star Wars Episode 1 and Aladdin's magic carpet in the opening scene of The Princess and the Frog. We're hosting our own Egg Hunt using letters hidden amongst some of our favourite books and movies and even in our Library branches (virtually of course). To complete the Hunt all you have to do is answer the questions and follow the clues that will lead you to the letters you need to spell the name of a well-known novel about rabbits.

How to play:

-) Print out this Egg Hunt and write your answers OR open in Adobe PDF reader and type in your answers.
- Use the Ipswich Libraries website OR your favourite internet browser to help you solve the questions (please make sure you have your parent or carer's permission). HINT you may need to check the Availability by Location for some of these items.
- Answer the questions and use the clues to lead you to the letters you need. Write the letters in spaces provided (the eggs!) then unscramble them to spell the name of a rabbit themed book.

1. "My name is Inigo Montoya, you killed my father, prepare to die!"

What cult 80's movie does this line come from? Search the Ipswich Libraries website for the movie title to find a behind the scenes book written by one the actors from the film.

Write the third letter of the actor/author's surname here:

2. "Dance for me, dance for me, dance for me, oh, oh, oh. I've never seen anybody do the things you do before"

What animal features in the title of this song? Search the Ipswich Libraries website for a book that also features this animal in its title "__ _ _ _ _ walk".

Write the fifth letter of the author's first name here:

3. "Do not pity the dead, Harry. Pity the living, and, above all those who live without love."

What movie does this quote come from? Ipswich Libraries has a CD of music from the movie. Look for it on the Library website to find the branch where it is kept.

Write the third letter of the branch name here:

4. "I close my eyes and I can see, The world that's waiting up for me"

What movie features a song with these lyrics? Search for it on the Ipswich Libraries website to find the CD that features the reimagined movie soundtrack. Which band sings the song that contains these lyrics?

__ _ at __ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ wríte the second letter of the fourth word here:

5. "The morning after noted child prodigy Colin Singleton graduated from high school and got dumped for the nineteenth time by a girl named Katherine, he took a bath."

This is the first line from which novel by award winning author John Green?

Write the fourth letter in the last word here:

6. "And darling I will be loving you 'til we're 70. And baby my heart could still fall as hard at 23"

Which English red head (sometime mistaken for Harry Potter star Rupert Grint) wrote the song that contains these lyrics? Search the Ipswich Libraries website for his 2018 biography.

Write the fourth letter of the author's surname here:

7. "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times"

This quote is from a famous British novel. Ipswich Libraries has a DVD of the 1989 film adaptation. Use the Ipswich Libraries website to find out which branch holds the DVD.

Write the third letter of the branch name here:

8. "Do or do not. There is no try."
Thís líne ís spoken by whích teacher to hís student ín a classíc famíly movíe? Search hís name on the Ipswích Líbraríes websíte to fínd a chíldren's pícture book that tells the story of how these characters meet and what happens next.
Wríte the thírd letter of the last word of the títle here:
9. "On Wednesdays we wear pink" The movie this quote is from was actually based on a non-fiction self-help book. Who was the author?
Write seventh letter of the authors surname here:
10. "To be, or not to be, that is the question"
What tragic play does this quote comes from?
use Ipswich Libraries website to find an eAudiobook of the story narrated by one of Australia's most-loved writers.
Write the second letter of the narrator's surname here:
11. "Houston, we have a problem"
Which 2005 movie does this line come from? Look up the DVD on the Ipswich Libraries website to find out it's call number. HINT this is what you would use to find the book on the shelf and may be letters or a mixture of letters and numbers.
Write the third letter of the call number here:
12. "I am Groot"
Ipswich Libraries has a children's picture book about the character who uses this line and all the things he needs to do before he goes to bed. Use the Ipswich Libraries website to find out which branch holds this picture book. Write the first letter in the second word in the branch name here:
13. "Yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away. Now it looks as though they're here to stay"
Which well-known British band originally sang these lyrics? Look up Ipswich Libraries website to find a 2014 CD of Australian musicians paying tribute to this band. The CD is titled: $\underline{} \underline{} \underline{} \underline{} \underline{} \underline{}$.
Write the last letter of the CD's title here:
Congratulations you found them all!
Now unscramble all your letters to find the name of a well known novel about rabbits.
Write down your answer in the boxes below:
Please complete the following details -
Name:
Emaíl: Mobíle:
Ipswich Libraries Membership Number*:
IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
To submít your Eye Spy Hunt - scan or photograph both completed pages of your prínted Hunt or save an edíted PDF. Make sure you save your entry as Eye Spy Eggs - 12 - 17 years - YOUR NAME
Emaíl your entry to public.programming@ipswich.qld.gov.au with Eye Spy Eggs 12 - 17 as the subject.

🥚 You or your parent/carer must be a current member of Ipswich Libraries* for your entry to be valid. *Not a member? Click

 $\underline{\text{here}} \text{ to join online. You will need your parents help to register for a library membership. It's FREE!}$

IPSWICH LIBRARIES

One entry per person per age group.